About

Mrs. Sanaea Shazad Mohta has been associated with the firm since 2013.

She attends to a diverse range of matters, both litigation and non-litigation, with a particular focus on Real Estate and Conveyancing. Additionally, she handles matters relating to Public and Private Trusts, Wills, Estates, Testamentary and Succession Law. Sanaea has considerable experience in drafting of wide range of legal documents across different branches of the law. Sanaea also attends to litigation work in the High Court at Bombay, City Civil Court at Bombay and the Small Causes Court at Bombay.

Over the years Sanaea has successfully managed several complex Real Estate transactions including re-development projects and other High Value transactions. Her clients include high net worth individuals, Trusts (both Public & Private), Corporate bodies, Co-operative Housing Societies etc., all of whom have benefited from her practical result-driven legal advice. She focuses on providing strategic legal counsel tailored to meet her clients' specific needs, ensuring seamless completion of transactions coupled with sound legal advice and regulatory compliance.

Sanaea is well respected, both amongst her clients and amongst her colleagues in the profession.
